1. Comment on a question or answer
   - Given that I have logged in using my credentials, I be able to comment on other users questions and or answers.
   - Given that I have not filled in the mandatory field for posting a comment then I should be given an error message.
   - Given that I have filled in the required fields in properly then I should be able to post my comment on other users questions/ answers.

2. Answer a question
   - Given that I have logged in using my credentials, I should be able to answer questions that other users have posted.
   - Given that I have not filled in the mandatory field for answering a question then I should be given an error message.
   - Given that I have been given an error message then I should fill in the fields correctly so as to be allowed to post my answer.
   - Given that I have filled in all the mandatory fields for answering a question then I should be allowed to post my answer.

3. Vote on questions and answers
   - Given that I have already logged in as a user using my credentials, I should be able to upvote or downvote other users questions and or answers.
   - Given that I am an authorized user, when I upvote or downvote a question or answer after upvoting or downvoting it respectively my vote will be removed on the question or answer.

4. Tag a question
   - Given that I have I am an authorised user when I ask a question then I can tag it to place under a certain topic.

5. Filter questions by tag
   - Given that I am an authorised user when I want questions under a certain topic I should be able to filter them out then view by that tag.